Welcome to a celebration of cycling in Western Norway!
Two of the races take place in Fjell and Øygarden on 23 and 24 September.
On Saturday 23 and Sunday 24 September, the Men’s Junior and Elite Road Races respectively will start from Rong in Øygarden, following the main road southwards through Fjell to the finishing line in Bergen city centre.

This brochure contains information on traffic management, the races themselves, bus and boat routes, and what is happening along the route from Rong in Øygarden to the Sotra Bridge in Fjell.

Welcome to a celebration of cycling in Western Norway!
Sotra and Øygarden offer a wide range of experiences and activities. During the UCI Road World Championships, there will be even more going on than usual, so this map is intended to show things that may be of interest to visitors during the Championships.

TRAFFIC MANAGEMENT

Two cycle races will be taking place in our region. The Men’s Junior Road Race starts at 09.30 on Saturday 23 September, with the Men’s Elite Road Race setting off at 10.05 the following day. Both races start at Rong in Øygarden, continue through Fjell and finish in Bergen city centre.

From 14 to 25 September, buses to and from Bergen city centre will start and terminate at Bergen Bus Station. The Championships will mainly impact Sotra and Øygarden on 23 and 24 September. Shuttle buses will run between Straume terminal and Bergen city centre from 16 to 24 September. There will also be dedicated shuttle buses along the Championship route in Øygarden on 23 and 24 September.
